GREAT FUTURES START HERE.

What is the Hartford Yard Goats Young Ambassadors Program ?

The Hartford Yard Goats Young Ambassadors Program is an exciting new after school initiative designed to empower high school aged teenagers and help them prepare for a successful future. The Young Ambassadors Program, offered by the Hartford Yard Goats and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Hartford, and held at Dunkin' Donuts Park, will serve to educate teens on college and career readiness, leadership, community service, money management and public speaking. The program will also provide off site experiences such as college tours, job shadowing, and more. A stipend will be awarded for completion of the program.

Applications are available now! [The deadline to apply is Monday, November 6th]
